FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WaterStone Bank Announces Two New Community Presidents

WAUWATOSA, Wis. – 11/2/2021 – WaterStone Bank announced today the addition of two new community presidents at its Greenfield/Loomis Rd. branch and Wauwatosa/State St. branch.

Rebecca McCartney

Rebecca McCartney now serves as the Community President for the Bank's Greenfield/Loomis Rd. branch. McCartney comes to WaterStone Bank with 12 years of previous banking experience, most recently at North Shore Bank. McCartney values community involvement and has spent several years volunteering with the Milwaukee Women's Center, an emergency center for domestic violence survivors and their children. On the weekend, Rebecca enjoys frequenting local coffee shops and hiking by the lakefront and Kettle Moraine State Forest.

Dia Wesner now serves as the Community President of the Bank's Wauwatosa/State St. branch. Wesner joins WaterStone Bank with over 20 years of finance and banking experience. She began her career as a mortgage broker at Chase Bank where she navigated her way through several positions including loan underwriting, foreclosure analysis/risk management, as well as quality control. Wesner has spent the last 9 years of her career in management roles. She is committed to the growth and success of her employees and is looking forward to developing and building relationships in the Wauwatosa community.
