Community Steps up to the Challenge

The Germantown Fire Department is celebrating their 100th anniversary this year. To celebrate this milestone, Wauwatosa Savings Bank hosted a fundraising campaign for the Fire Department from September 29 through November 12.

The primary goal of the fundraising campaign was to enable the Fire Department to purchase a much-needed thermal imaging camera. This advanced piece of equipment has a price tag of roughly $10,000, but it would create a more efficient and better-equipped fire department for the Germantown community.

Wauwatosa Savings challenged the residents to show their community support and offered to contribute a matching donation of the total funds raised by the community during the campaign up to $5,000.

Congratulations, Germantown! Wauwatosa Savings reported $5,119 contributed to the campaign by the community. As promised Wauwatosa Savings contributed a matching donation up to $5,000, with a grand total of $10,119 donated to the Germantown Fire Department. Thank you, Germantown, for coming together to support your community.
