WaterStone Bank Hires New Community President

Wauwatosa, Wis. — 12/12/2018 — WaterStone Bank (“WSB”) has hired a new community president.

Cari Bray has been appointed to community president of the bank’s Greenfield branch. In her new role, Cari will manage branch operations; she looks forward to making connections in the Greenfield community. Prior to joining WSB, Cari was branch manager at Prime Financial Credit Union. In her spare time she enjoys visiting the Milwaukee Public Museum with her children. Cari resides in Cudahy.

“We are happy Cari is joining our team here at WaterStone Bank. Her experience, passion for community, and proven customer satisfaction is the perfect fit,” said Julie Glynn, senior vice president retail banking.
