^This Negative Balance Fee will start when you are overdrawn more than five (5) consecutive Business Days and will be charged each Business day you are overdrawn until you reach a total of $40.00 in consecutive Negative Balance Fees. The term "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or federally declared legal holiday. If your account is no longer overdrawn for at least one (1) full Business Day the Negative Balance Fee will terminate but will be re-imposed if your account becomes overdrawn more than five (5) consecutive Business Days. Other fees charged can cause your account to be overdrawn and subject to NSF Return Item or Overdraft fee(s) in addition to a Negative Balance fee for having an overdrawn account.

^^The returned wire amount that is deposited back to your account may be less than the original amount due to fees charged by the recipient bank and/or foreign taxes or foreign currency exchange if applicable.

^^^The Overdraft Protection Fee may be charged for automatic transfers of funds from an account you own to place funds into a different account which is overdrawn.
